

ENVIRONMENTAL EFFECTS ON LIFE

HEALTH OF WOMEN AND WOMEN DOCTORS

November 13, 2021 Stockholm, at 12-16, GMT +1h

12.00-12.30 Introduction

Dr. Paula Pihlaja, President of Finnish Medical Women Association

Dr. Eleanor Nwadinobi, President of MWIA

Dr. Elizabeth Lorraine-Lichtenstein, Northern European Vice President

12.30-16.00 Environmental effects on women's health and career - does gender matter?

Do we neglect women's symptoms in female illnesses?

Professor Karin Schenk-Gustafsson,
Chair of Gender Medicine,
Karolinska Institutet

Career hurdles for women doctors in and out of Covid-19.

Dr. Clarissa Fabre

Gendered domestic violence and the role of medical women as firstline responders.

Prof. Dr. Bettina Pfeleiderer, past president of MWIA

The impact of Covid-19 epidemic on gender equality in Finland.

Dr. Tuula Saarela

How we can support each other in a system built during a time when a majority of doctors were men?

Swedish organization "Who takes care of the doctor?"
founded by Dr. Jill Taube &
Dr. Maria Zetterlund

Supporting young families with young children.

Dr. Merja-Maaria Turunen

How can your partner support your career?

Theo Bodin, husband of a young doctor

Photo:
Yanan Li

Violence and other consequences of Covid-19.
Dr. Helen Goodyear

16.00-17.00 MWIA Northern European Business meeting
Chairwoman Dr. Elizabeth Lorraine-Lichtenstein